

Charge to the EVLA Advisory Committee

Miller Goss (Acting NRAO Director)

Advise the NRAO Director concerning the ability of the EVLA project to achieve its scientific and technical goals. The Committee should provide advice on scientific, management, and technical (both hardware and software) priorities as well as design and implementation issues.