Eagle nest wildlife sanctuary

Period of visit : 7th-12th Jan, 1995.

Altitudinal range : 500-3500m, all of it accessible

Access : An unpaved road in fairly good condition cuts right across the sanctuary connecting Kamengbari and Tenga (figure on previous page). A 4-wheel drive jeep is the ideal vehicle for visiting the sanctuary. Both Kamengbari (once) and Tenga (several times; via Bhalukpong) are connected to Balipara by buses daily. A trek between Kamengbari and Tenga is another good way of seeing the sanctuary..

Only the higher reaches of the sanctuary (above Bompou) were explored during this visit. Information regarding places between Bompou and Balipara are sketchy and may be erroneous.

Vegetation and Habitat

- * Ramalingam 2 : Plantation, fallow fields scrub, patches of original trees.
- * Lama camp : Heavily logged and degraded forest. Many original trees too.
- * Lama camp - Nala camp : Heavily logged scrub, pine, bamboo, rocky patches.
- * Nala camp - Eagle nest pass : Bamboo and oak, rhododendron etc. Sanctuary Begins
- * Above EN pass : Bamboo with some oak, rhododendron, fir(?), birch etc.
- * EN pass - Sunder view : Broad leaved forest with bamboo, open hill slopes etc.
- * Below Sunder view : Wet temperate evergreen forest with extensive bamboo where ever original vegetation cleared. A lot of such patches can be seen around Bompou.

Birds

- * EVERYWHERE! Especially on the stretch between Chakoo and Bompou and between Lama camp and Eagle nest pass. Almost all birds seen from the road.

Trails

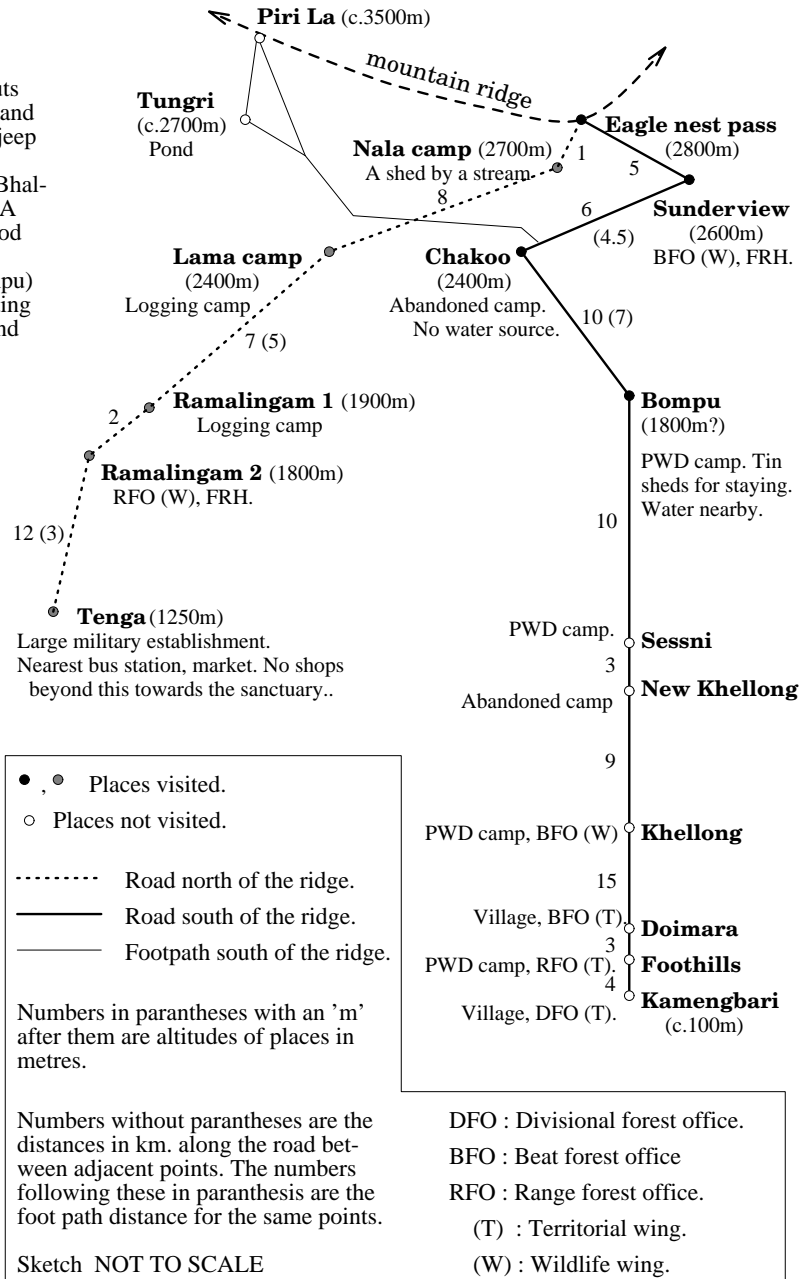

- * A trail from a km above Chakoo. Climbs upto the ridge at Piri La (4 km). The path forks with the lower one going to Tungri (3 km), a pond where mammals are regularly seen. A path leads from Tungri to Piri La.
- * Eagle nest pass to Piri La along the ridge; The going through bamboo is tough!
- * Many ill-defined trails which peter out. Local guides essential.

Mammals

- * Look out for red pandas and black bears above Sunder view. Serows are seen very early in the mornings on rocky outcrops next to the road.

Facilities : Nothing apart from the FRH or tin sheds. Everything has to be carried along.

The range forest officer is stationed at Ramalingam and it may be more convenient to begin the visit from that end.

Weather : Rainy season lasts from April to October. Aseasonal rains could occur any time at all. The area is prone to heavy fog regularly (The views are even more spectacular then!). Local wisdom is that January is usually a wet month.

Notes on individual species

(Specific locations of sighting of birds which were seen on very few occasions have been described here along with notes on behaviour)

(125) Blyth's baza

A pair hunting insects early in the morning next to the forest range office at Seijosa.

(189) Hen harrier

A solitary bird seen a couple of times flying slowly over R.Pakke scanning the flood plains.

(205) White legged falconet

A bird seen perched on a bare tree in the clearing at the second stream back along the road from Khari.

(433) Ibisbill

A flock of about 8 birds roosting at dusk on the shingle banks of Tipi.

(593) Large green billed malkoha

A bird in a riverine patch along the Lelang river upstream of Khari FRH.

(640) Barred owlet

Perched on an exposed branched by the road in the forenoon, once each above Tipi and Sessa.

(864,5) Broadbills

Both species were seen flying into the Khari FRH clearing at dusk, every day. They always followed the same route.

(866) Blue naped pitta

One sighting in the undergrowth in thick forest across the river from Tipi.

(972) Lesser racket tailed drongo

Many individuals lacked the "racket"! Seasonal moulting?

(1088) Yellow throated minivet

A flock behind the Sessa FRH early in the morning.

(1212) Gold headed babbler

In a mixed flock of black throated and yellow throated tit- babblers (1214 & 1378) in the reeds next to the stream at Sessa.

(1242) Orange parrotbill

A flock in the scrub next to the road between Ramalingam and Lama camp (c.2100m)

(1247) Greater red headed parrotbill

Many flocks seen but always in the company of spectacled barwings (1348)

(1303) Rufous necked laughing-thrush

A flock in shrubbery within the Sessa village.

(1319) Blue winged laughing-thrush

A flock behind the FRH at Sessa.

(1343) Green shrike-babbler

In a huge mixed flock of over a dozen species in scrub between Lama and Nala camps (c.2600m).

(1348) Spectacled barwing

Seen in all mixed parties of birds of that size. Appeared to form the core of all such parties.

(1353) Hoary Barwing

First record of the bird east of Bhutan! Midway between Sunderview and Chakoo, a bird flew back along the road calling loudly, into and out of a ravine and up into the forest. The call was very distinctive and a little while later the same call was heard some distance down the road. On tracking it, another bird (or was it the same bird?) was seen. The Dafla hills subspecies of the Austen's barwing (1354) is somewhat similar; However, they were also observed in the field the next day and specific differences noted which were borne out when specimens were compared at the BNHS museum in Bombay. The plumage and the call (described previously by others) confirmed the identification.

(1366) White naped yuhina

A large flock in the evening beside the stream at Sessa.

(1375) White bellied yuhina

A flock in dense forest beside the Khari FRH.

(1379) Chestnut headed tit-babbler

In a huge mixed flock of over a dozen species in scrub between Lama and Nala camps (c.2600m).

(1415) White gorgeted flycatcher

A single bird next to the road, a couple of kilometers above Sessa (1250m).

(1418) Rusty breasted blue flycatcher

A male in degraded scrub between Lama and Nala camps (c.2500m)..

(1433) Rufous bellied blue flycatcher

A male was seen high up in a tall tree just below Chakoo (2400m). It was similar in size to a female large niltava (1428) which was close by. Its crown and shoulders could not be seen which made it difficult to distinguish it from the very similar but smaller rufous bellied niltava. Though comparison with the large niltava indicated its larger size, we keep its identification tentative.

(1434) White tailed blue flycatcher

A blue flycatcher with a pale belly and white tail was seen roosting at dusk on the tree next to Khari FRH. Considering the fading light and the lack of any records of the bird outside the Margherita area in S.E.Arunachal Pradesh, it would perhaps be more appropriate to consider the identification tentative.

(1473) Chestnut headed ground warbler

In an overgrown ditch behind the Sessa FRH on two occasions.

(1484) Verraux's bush warbler

A few birds in the grass behind the Chakoo camp.

(1627) Broad billed flycatcher-warbler

One bird along the road before Khari in the shrubs by the wayside.

(1639) Lesser shortwing

A female in the tangled shrubbery in the riverine patch across the river from Khari FRH

(1641) White browed shortwing

Two sightings of a female (different birds?) among plants by the second stream back along the road from Khari.

(1674) Hodgson's redstart

A bird resident in the orchard and scrub behind the Ramalingam FRH.

(1681) White tailed blue robin

A bird seen in tangled shrubbery in very dense forest across the river from Tipi.

(1689) Spotted forktail

A bird flew up along a rocky stream between Sunderview and Chakoo (2500m).

(1776) Brown dipper

A dipper like bird flew along the river below Tipi FRH (c.170m). Was it actually a dipper at such a low altitude or was it a rail that we mistook?

(1788) Maroon backed accentor

A few birds at Nala camp roosting in the bamboo by the road side (c.2700m).

(1823) Rufous fronted tit

A couple of flocks at Eagle nest pass.

(1837) Beautiful nuthatch

In a mixed flock with chestnut backed sibilias (1395) in the tall trees by the stream behind the canteen at Sessa.

(1896) Yellow bellied flowerpecker

A pair by the road side between Chakoo and Bompou (c.2200m).

(1906) Rubycheek

A pair in the trees a little way beyond the range office at Seijosa.

(2035) Gold headed black finch

A pair in the bamboo and boulders eating fluffy seeds from a plant between Lama and Nala camps (2600m).
