Search for TeV Emission from Galaxy Clusters

- TeV γ-rays may be produced by merger and/or accretion shocks in galaxy clusters.
- Milagro has performed the most sensitive TeV Survey of the entire Northern Hemisphere, placing upper limits that are comparable to some model predictions.

!Graph showing the prediction of accretion shocks in Coma Cluster and the Milagro upper limit.

Brenda Dingus for the Milagro Collaboration (dingus@lanl.gov)